... Introductory ...

IN PRESENTING to their patrons and the public the 1901 edition of the NORFOLK, PORTSMOUTH AND BERKLEY DIRECTORY, the publishers desire to express their appreciation of the liberal patronage extended them by the enterprising business men and institutions of these cities, as well as for the uniform courtesy with which their representatives have been received, and the assistance given them in the compilation of the work.

The publishers aim to make the Directory for each year more complete in scope and accurate in detail than that for the preceding year—an endeavor in which they believe they have been, and will continue to be successful.

The appearance for the first time in this volume of a street and avenue guide for Ghent and Atlantic City, and the use of street numbers in giving locations in these important parts of the city will be found to add materially to the value of the DIRECTORY.

Again thanking our patrons and the public for their support and bespeaking a continuance of the same for succeeding volumes.

We remain very truly,

J. L. HILL PRINTING CO.,

Norfolk, Va., February 20, 1901.
